

After the inverter installation is completed, slide the wire cover upward along the side wall of the handles from the bottom.

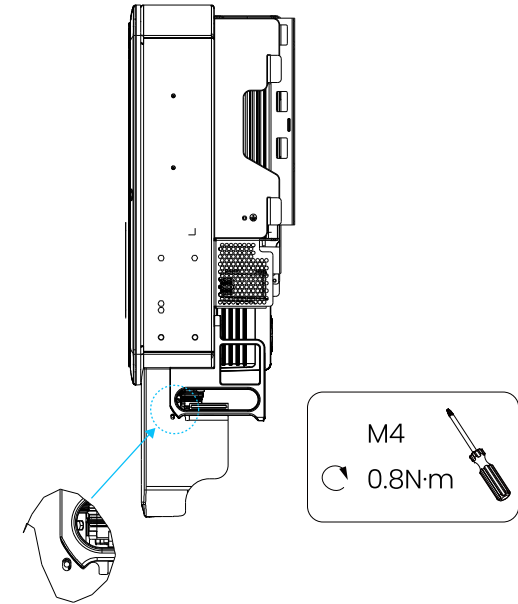

1

Apply upward force to the wire cover when the buckle contacts the handles. When you hear a “click”, the wire cover is securely installed.

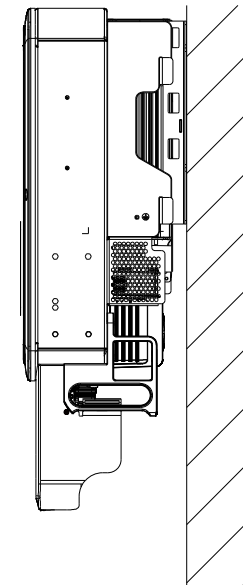

2

After snapping the wire cover's clips into the handle, tighten the openings on both sides with screws.

3

4